VETERAN’S PREFERENCE POINTS REQUEST FORM

If a final examination or structured interview qualifying score of at least 70% is obtained, a candidate will receive an additional 5 war veteran’s preference points or 10 points for 10% or more service-connected disability. The candidate must include relevant war veteran documentation with each application that is submitted. A candidate claiming 10% or more service-connected disability must also submit a letter from the Veteran’s Administration verifying the percentage of disability. War veteran’s preference points are only received by candidates who are entering state government.

Veteran’s Preference

You may be eligible for veteran’s preference points upon INITIAL application into the classified state service for military duty performed during qualifying periods of war/armed conflict. To request veteran’s preference points you must present this signed form at the time of testing with a copy of documentation confirming veteran’s status. Please check one of the following if you wish to claim veteran’s preference points.

- War Veteran (5 Points)
- Disabled War Veteran with 10% or more service-connected disability (10 Points)
- Unmarried surviving spouse of a War Veteran (5 Points)
- Unmarried spouse of a War Veteran whose death was service-connected (10 Points)
- Spouse of disabled War Veteran with service-connected total disability (5 Points)

Please keep in mind that this is only for positions requiring a written examination or structured interview as required by the Division of Personnel and outlined on the job classification.
