

BET Leadership Boot Camps

BET is offering a selection of Leadership Boot Camps designed for work teams to move through individual self-awareness and skill building to team-focused proficiencies. The intensive 5 day training seminar by BET staff is designed for co-workers to learn effective engagement skills and practical tools applicable to their work environment.

- Each Boot Camp begins with the Myers-Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI) – Understanding Personality, followed by a program on Emotional Intelligence (EQ). The other particular course offerings within the Boot Camps can be selected to customize the program to meet specific organizational goals. Alternative course selections are listed below with the course descriptions.
- The five days can be all in one week, or scheduled over a two to three week period.
- The program is intended for 10-25 participants.
