re: John Corrigan

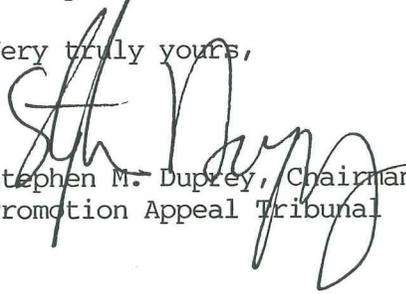

Dear Ms. Spear:

At the January 14, 1986 meeting of the Promotion Appeal Tribunal, you represented Mr. John Corrigan in an appeal of his non-selection to the position of Programs Information Officer, New Hampshire Fish and Game Department.

Per 302.03(a) of the "Rules of the Department of Personnel" states, "A vacancy shall be filled whenever possible and reasonable by promotion of a qualified employee from within the department or agency." (Emphasis added.) When Mr. Corrigan requested a hearing before the Tribunal, he was not an employee of Fish and Game and therefore had no appeal rights as an in-house applicant under Per 302.03.

Mr. Corrigan's appeal has therefore been dismissed as not qualifying as a valid appeal under the "Rules of the Department of Personnel."

Very truly yours,

Stephen M. Duprey, Chairman
Promotion Appeal Tribunal
