APPEAL OF LINDA FARRELL

June 15, 1988

By letter dated April 6, 1988, SEA Field Representative Jean Chellis filed an appeal with the Personnel Appeals Board on behalf of Linda Farrell, an employee of the Department of Safety, to appeal Ms. Farrell's "seniority date established by the Director of Personnel by Personnel Action Form."

The appellant stated, "Of specific concern is Ms. Vogel's March 22, 1988 letter..." That letter was not included as an attachment and therefore could neither be reviewed nor discussed by the Board.

The appellant further argued that "change in Ms. Farrell's seniority date has impacted on Ms. Farrell's entitlements established by the current collective bargaining agreement..." The Board will not address Ms. Farrell's entitlements under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, nor the definitions of any terms used in the Collective Bargaining Agreement. Application of any terms and conditions defined by the Agreement are subject to Article XIV of that Agreement, specifically Article 14.1.1. "The purpose of the Article is to provide a mutually acceptable procedure for adjusting grievances and disputes arising with respect to interpretation or application of any provision of this Agreement." The Personnel Appeals Board has no jurisdiction over disputes arising from interpretation or application of any term or condition of that Agreement.

The Board, consisting of Commissioners Cushman and Platt, therefore voted to dismiss the appeal.
