APPEAL OF LARRY AMOS New Hampshire Liquor Commission

Docket #94-C-3

August 23, 1995

Larry Amos, a former employee of the New Hampshire State Liquor Commission (currently an employee of the Department of Safety), was scheduled to appear for a hearing on the merits of his classification appeal on Wednesday, August 9, 1995. The Board was advised verbally by Claude Ouellette, Human Resources Administrator for the Department of Safety, and by George Liouzis, Human Resources Administrator for the Liquor Commission, that Mr. Amos' appeal would be withdrawn. However, no such written notice was received from the appellant prior to the scheduled hearing. Neither Mr. Amos, nor any person appearing on his behalf, was present for the scheduled hearing.

Therefore, upon its own motion, the Board voted to dismiss the appeal.
