re: Richard Hunt

Dear Mr. Henchey:

By letter dated November 27, 1986, the State Employees' Association requested a hearing on behalf of Richard Hunt, a former employee of New Hampshire Hospital whose employment was terminated prior to completion of his probationary period.

On December 16, 1986, the New Hampshire Hospital responded to the Appeals Board with an explanation of Mr. Hunt's termination. A copy of that correspondence was forwarded to William P. Briggs, Esquire, then General Counsel for the SEA.

The Appeals Board has reviewed the record in this matter, including the appeal request and the response to that request. Having considered all of the evidence presented in this matter, the Board found no indication that the termination was arbitrary, illegal, capricious or made in bad faith.

Accordingly, the Board voted to deny Mr. Hunt's appeal.

Very truly yours,

FOR THE PERSONNEL APPEALS BOARD
