APPEAL OF THAI STAPLES

June 15, 1988

By letter dated June 25, 1987, SEA General Counsel Michael C. Reynolds filed with the Board a request for a hearing to appeal the termination of Nathan Staples, a probationary employee of the New Hampshire Hospital.

Prior to granting or denying the appellant's request, the Board was notified through its secretary that the appeal had been withdrawn. That notification was received in a telephone conversation with Mr. Reynolds. Subsequently, the appeal file was marked as withdrawn and removed from the list of appeals pending.

During the week of May 23, 1988, Mr. Reynolds telephoned the Board's secretary to ask for the status of Mr. Staples' appeal and was informed that the appeal file was closed.

Given that the Board received verbal notification of withdrawal, and given that neither the appellant nor his representative have requested any information or clarification in more than eleven months since the appeal was originally filed, the Board voted at its meeting of June 14, 1988 to consider the appeal withdrawn as per request of the appellant's representative.
