Agencies wishing to change location delivery status from “will call” to “automatic delivery” or vice versa shall contact the Contractor in writing to request the change.

AUTOMATIC DELIVERY REQUIREMENTS – STATE AGENCY RESPONSIBILITIES
To assist in a smooth delivery operation (especially at the beginning of a new contract with a new delivery company), the ordering Agency shall provide the contractor with the previous delivery history data, upon request (1 year worth of consumption is preferable) so the contractor may provide the delivery service in an accurate and efficient manner. This history data is also available by request from the previous contractor. Agencies should monitor their fuel tank consumption for the first 3 months of a new contract to be sure they do not run out while the “automatic delivery” program builds a consumption history.

AUTOMATIC DELIVERY REQUIREMENTS – CONTRACTOR RESPONSIBILITIES
The successful contractor shall manage the fuel levels in each “automatic delivery” required location. The tank shall be managed in such a manner that the individual tank will not run out of fuel. If for any reason a tank runs dry, the successful contractor will be responsible to:

- Accept and process claims for damage caused to the building because of loss of heat such as, broken pipes, water damage, etc.

DELIVERY – “AFTER HOURS DELIVERY”, AGENCY AND CONTRACTOR RESPONSIBILITIES:
Contractor will not assume deliveries made outside of the specified time frames (after hours delivery) are acceptable without permission from the State agency. Many facilities have security measures in place to prevent after hours traffic on the property. Communication between contractor and agency shall take place to allow for "after hours delivery". Ordering State Agencies shall comply where possible with the contractor's request for "after hour's delivery" provided reasonable notice of the request is supplied. Request for "after hour's delivery" should be isolated instances stemming from unforeseen circumstances and not considered standard delivery procedure.
