Appeal of Bruce Warren New Hampshire Air National Guard Base

Docket #94 -T-24

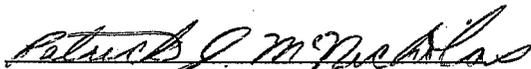

May 25, 1995

The New Hampshire Personnel Appeals Board (Bennett, Rule and McGinley) met Wednesday, October 19, 1994, for a mandatory prehearing conference in the above-captioned appeal of Mr. Warren's termination from employment prior to completion of his probationary period. Lt. Col. Dennis O'Connell, Staff Judge Advocate, appeared on behalf of the Adjutant General's Department. Neither Mr. Warren nor any person representing Mr. Warren appeared as scheduled.

At the pre-hearing conference, Lt. Col. O'Connell made a motion to dismiss, based upon Mr. Warren's failure to appear. The Board agreed to provide further notice to the appellant, allowing him fifteen days in which to respond, showing cause why his appeal should not be dismissed with prejudice. Lt. Col. O'Connell also filed a written Motion to Dismiss on December 12, 1994.

The Board shall allow the appellant fifteen days from the date of this order to show cause why his appeal should not be dismissed with prejudice, as set forth in the Adjutant General's December 12, 1994, Motion to Dismiss. Otherwise, the appeal will be dismissed with prejudice.
