Provided, however, the New Hampshire Attorney General must give written authorization to any legal counsel purporting to act in the name of, or represent the interests of, the State of New Hampshire and/or its officers, employees and agents prior to such action or representation. Further, the State of New Hampshire, acting by and through its Department of Justice, may assume its own defense, including that of its officers, employees and agents, at any time when in the State of New Hampshire's sole discretion it determines that (I) proposed counsel is prohibited from the particular representation contemplated; (II) counsel is not adequately defending or able to defend the interests of the State of New Hampshire, its officers, employees and/or agents; (III) important governmental interests are at stake; or (IV) the best interests of the State of New Hampshire are served thereby.
